BACKGROUND

Cotton Traders sell quality leisurewear and casual clothes for both men and women, plus footwear, accessories and more, via mail order. They were founded in 1987 by former England rugby captains Fran Cotton and Steve Smith who initially sold quality rugby shirts, expanding their clothing range over the years.

Cotton Traders despatch up to 170,000 parcels each month with customers sourced via inserts, off-the-page advertising and through the Cotton Traders website. The customer base has a female bias and is predominantly aged 45-70 years old with a household income of £40,000+. Lifestyle profiling shows they are mostly Empty Nesters and Elderly Couples with strong interests in Charity/Voluntary Work, Environment/Wildlife, outdoor Activities, Health and Home Computing.

Historically, the programme has performed repeatedly well for offers including wine & gourmet foods, collectables, financial services, telecommunications, health & beauty, home & office products, holiday offers and charities.
